

Acceptable Use Guidelines for Social Media

This user policy is in addition to any user policy or terms and conditions imposed by Facebook.

Canning Vale College can, at its discretion, remove any comments, information, images and videos which are posted that do not follow these guidelines.

Please ensure your comments only relate to the posted topic. Other comments or general complaints should not be posted and may be removed at the discretion of the school.

The use of obscene, threatening and harassing language is prohibited, as are personal attacks of any kind and offensive comments that target or disparage any ethnic, racial, age or religious group, gender, sexual orientation or disability status.

Please ensure you show courtesy and respect to others and you must not use this site to abuse others, expose others to offensive or inappropriate content, or for any unlawful purpose.

Comments advocating illegal activity or posting of material that violates copyright or trademarks are also not allowed.

You may post only your own, original content. Reproduced or borrowed content that appears to violate third party rights is not allowed.

Comments should not infer endorsement or promote a product, business, company or organisation. Neither should they promote or oppose any person campaigning for election to a political office.

Content should not include personal information about you or another individual (including identifying information, email addresses, telephone numbers or private addresses).

Please be aware that Canning Vale College's user policy is subject to amendment or modification and may change at any time.
