

CANNINGVALE

Modern History – General Year 11

Unit 1 – People, Place and Time (Elective: George Washington and the American revolution)

Unit 2 – Power and Authority (Elective: Tokugawa Japan)

SEMESTER 1: UNIT 1- PEOPLE, PLACE AND TIME (ELECTIVE: GEORGE WASHINGTON AND THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION)

Term	Week	Topic and key teaching points	Syllabus content	WALT/ WILF	Assessment
1	1-2	Introduction- History- why study it? Syllabus overview, outline. Establish: People Glossaries (Biographies) Timelines Word glossaries Types of assessments overview- Source Analysis, Historical Inquiry, explanation and Test. Brief background to America in 1763 (Timeline and event overviews) • First Nations foundation: how was each colony governed? Consider hardships of having a colony so far away- establishment of infrastructure and establishing a sustainable colony (slavery, colonialists, native Americans) • Britain's thirteen colonies- mapping activity • British mercantilist policy • Social structure of the British colonies- look at the variance between the 13 colonies • Sources of revolutionary ideas • French and Indian War – 1754 to 1763 • Salutary neglect Set up Glossary: People • George Washington	The development of historical skills is intrinsic to the teaching of this unit. (This content follows this table.) The impact of the following forces should be considered, where appropriate, throughout the elective: political, economic, leadership, international relations/conflict, social/cultural. Historical knowledge and understanding: Elements of society at the start of the period: • key political, social and economic structures of a society at the start of the period • values, beliefs and traditions characteristic of a society	WALT: (What we are learning to do)- How and why America was established and the first conflict (French Indian war)- causes, events, main players and outcome. WILF: (What I am looking for)- location and names of the 13 colonies, importance of key people, timeline skills and importance of French-Indian war.

CANNINGVALE

Modern History - General Year 11

Unit 1 – People, Place and Time (Elective: George Washington and the American revolution)

Unit 2 – Power and Authority (Elective: Tokugawa Japan)

		 King George 111 Benjamin Frankllin Primary and secondary sources Where and how to locate sources, including internet search engines to locate videos and images. Begin looking at source analysis questions that will be asked- handout. VIDEO'S: 13 colonies video's on You tube (Mr Zoller's class). Text: Analysing the American Revolution Chapter Growing Opposition to Britain, 1763 - 1766 (Timeline) 	 chronology of the period of study according to significant events, people and ideas Key People, ideas, events over the period. ideas that emerged throughout the period key events that occurred throughout the period the emergence of individuals and groups within a society Historical knowledge and understanding: 	WALT (What we are learning
1	3	Look at why the colonial people of America were beginning to move towards independence. Could it have been prevented? Key events: • Aftermath of the French and Indian War, 1754 – 1763 • Proclamation Line and Pontiac's Rebellion • Colonial assemblies • Sugar Act 1764 • Stamp Act 1765 • Stamp Act Congress • Quartering Act 1765 • Declaratory Act 1766	 key political, social and economic structures of a society at the start of the period values, beliefs and traditions characteristic of a society chronology of the period of study according to significant events, people and ideas 	to do): Interpretation of sources- context, message, source identification, perspective, usefulness. Important people and events information- collecting quotes. WILF (What I am looking for): Ability to respond to source questions, knowledge of the foundation of America.	TASK 1 : Source analysis on the beginning of the 13 colonies.

Modern History - General Year 11

Unit 1 – People, Place and Time (Elective: George Washington and the American revolution)

Unit 2 – Power and Authority (Elective: Tokugawa Japan)

		People and groups to consider and add to the glossary: Sons of Liberty John Hancock Patrick Henry Samuel Adams QUOTES ACTIVITY: "No taxation without representation"- who said this and what does it mean? Getting students to collect quotes from important people. RESOURCES: Text: Analysing the American Revolution Chapter 2 Clickview: Creation of a Nation	 Key people, ideas and events over the period ideas that emerged throughout the period key events that occurred throughout the period the emergence of individuals and groups within a society level of support or opposition for significant individuals, groups or organisations, ideas and events
1	4-6	Quick research task- choose one of the following a do up a poster explaining why they are important to our time period. May work with a partner. • George Washington • King George • Patrick Henry • Samuel Adams • Paul Revere • John Adams	Historical knowledge and understanding: Elements of Society at the start of the period: • key political, social and economic structures of a society at the start of the period	WALT (What we are learning to do): Looking at biographies of important people during the lead up to Revolution- who, where, when, why, what, how. Investigation skills. WILF (What I am looking for):

Modern History - General Year 11

Unit 1 – People, Place and Time (Elective: George Washington and the American revolution)

Unit 2 – Power and Authority (Elective: Tokugawa Japan)

Libra	csources: rary t: Analysing the American Revolution	 values, beliefs and traditions characteristic of a society chronology of the period of study according to significant events, people and ideas Key people, ideas and events over the period: ideas that emerged throughout the period key events that occurred throughout the period the emergence of individuals and groups within a society level of support or opposition for significant individuals, groups or organisations, ideas and events 	Research notes, bibliography and appropriate sources collected and submitted.
-------	---	---	---	--

Modern History – General Year 11

Unit 1 – People, Place and Time (Elective: George Washington and the American revolution)

Unit 2 – Power and Authority (Elective: Tokugawa Japan)

Modern History - General Year 11

Unit 1 – People, Place and Time (Elective: George Washington and the American revolution)

Unit 2 – Power and Authority (Elective: Tokugawa Japan)

ty%26FORM%3dHDRSC3&view=detail∣=0AE8AE4 15F00263D1E560AE8AE415F00263D1E56&&FORM=V DRVRV	chronology of the period of study according to significant events, people and ideas
	Consequences of continuity and change over the period nature (types) of continuity and change
	forces that bring about continuity and change, for example, political, economic, social, military, religious, technological, leadership, collective or group pressure identifying forces that were more significant than others in shaping continuity and change
	 identifying aspects of a society that changed and those which stayed the same

Modern History - General Year 11

Unit 1 – People, Place and Time (Elective: George Washington and the American revolution)

Unit 2 – Power and Authority (Elective: Tokugawa Japan)

1 10-11	Britain verses America 1774 – 1776 (Timeline) The rise of American nationalism (what is it? Why is it important? Causes?) Coercive Acts 1774 First Continental Congress 1774 Battle of Lexington – Concord 1775 Provincial congresses The Declaration of Independence 1776 IMPORTANT PEOPLE: Lord North Benjamin Franklin Thomas Paine Thomas Jefferson Richard Henry Lee IDEAS Revolutionary ideas- Look at the various sources showing the differing views in regards to the continued colony of America. RESOURCES: Text: Analyisng the American Revolution Chapter 4 Clickview: creation of a Nation	Historical knowledge and understanding: Key people, ideas and events over the period: • ideas that emerged throughout the period • key events that occurred throughout the period • the emergence of individuals and groups within a society • level of support or opposition for significant individuals, groups or organisations, ideas and events Consequences of continuity and change over the period • nature (types) of continuity and change • forces that bring about continuity and change, for example, political, economic, social, military, religious, technological, leadership, collective or group pressure	WALT (What we are learning to do): Research notes, bibliography and source collection, essay planning and writing. WILF (What I am looking for): Research submitted and an essay submitted. All work to be your own- not plagiarised, essay to have properly written paragraphs and to follow the layout given.	Task 3: Source Analysis – teacher generated source analysis sources on the War of Independence.
---------	--	---	--	---

Modern History - General Year 11

Unit 1 – People, Place and Time (Elective: George Washington and the American revolution)

Unit 2 – Power and Authority (Elective: Tokugawa Japan)

			identifying forces that were more significant than others in shaping continuity and change
1	12-13	The War of Independence, 1776 – 1787 (Timeline) Causes: The articles of Confederation 1777 Virginian Declaration of Rights 1776 Jefferson's Statute for Religious Freedom 1777 Creation of the Continental army Attitude and behaviour of Britain towards America Main events: New York New Jersey Delaware Battle of Trenton Saratoga Valley Forge	Historical knowledge and understanding: Consequences of continuity and change over the period: nature (types) of continuity and change forces that bring about continuity and change, for example, political, economic, social, military, religious, technological, leadership, collective or group pressure identifying forces that were more significant than others in shaping continuity and change Key people, ideas and events over the period:	WALT (What are we learning to do): Outline the causes of the revolution and the major events of the war, focussing on Washington's role. WILF (What am I looking for): Source analysis skills in regards to the war of independence.	Task 4: Historical Inquiry- The battles of the revolution. Due week 15.

Modern History - General Year 11

Unit 1 – People, Place and Time (Elective: George Washington and the American revolution)

Unit 2 – Power and Authority (Elective: Tokugawa Japan)

• Shay's Rebellion There are others People:	 ideas that emerged throughout the period key events that occurred throughout the
 George Washington General Gates General Arnold General Burgoyne General St Leger General Howe King George the third Outcome: Why did Britain lose? 	 period the emergence of individuals and groups within a society level of support or opposition for significant individuals, groups or organisations, ideas and events
 Treaty of Paris 1783 What was the structure of the new society? All equal? Establishment of American Government RESOURCES: Text: Analysing the American Revolution Chapter 6 Clickview: Creation of a Nation

Unit 1 – People, Place and Time (Elective: George Washington and the American revolution)

Unit 2 – Power and Authority (Elective: Tokugawa Japan)

Events: Annapolis Convention Philadelphia Convention Ratification debates The Bill of Rights People: James Madison Alexander Hamilton George Mason George Washington Political establishment of how the country would not benefits of the new societ we all equal? (Slaves, improved and why. RESOURCES: Clickview: declaring Index	tion 1787 The United States of Americators be governed. What are the y-looking at the constitution are migrants, women) USA 1789- role, how he was	Historical knowledge and understanding: Consequences of continuity and change over the period: • nature (types) of continuity and change • forces that bring about continuity and change, for example, political, economic, social, military, religious, technological, leadership, collective or group pressure • identifying forces that were more significant than others in shaping continuity and change • identifying aspects of a society that changed and those which stayed the same Key people, ideas and events over the period: • ideas that emerged throughout the period • key events that occurred throughout the period • the emergence of individuals and groups within a society	WALT (What are we learning to do): The establishment of USA-looking at the constitution and the first President- George Washington. WILF (What am I looking for): Understanding of how the political system works and the impact the American constitution had on minorities.
--	--	--	--	--	--

Modern History - General Year 11

Unit 1 – People, Place and Time (Elective: George Washington and the American revolution)

Unit 2 – Power and Authority (Elective: Tokugawa Japan)

			level of support or opposition for significant individuals, groups or organisations, ideas and events
2	16	 Revision of unit 1 Use your timelines, biographies and glossaries. Ensure you know: Foundation of America, Causes of the revolution, main events and outcomes. Practice your source analysis questions. 	Historical knowledge and understanding: Elements of society at the start of the period: • key political, social and economic structures of a society at the start of the period • values, beliefs and traditions characteristic of a society • chronology of the period of study according to significant events, people and ideas	WALT (What are we learning to do): Revising the whole period focus on continuity and change-Social, Political & Leadership, International, Economic and referring to Sources (evidence)-SPIES! WILF (What am I looking for): Knowledge and understanding of Elements of a American society at the start of the period, Key people, ideas, events over the period and	Task 5: Test on Unit 1

Modern History - General Year 11

Unit 1 – People, Place and Time (Elective: George Washington and the American revolution)

Unit 2 – Power and Authority (Elective: Tokugawa Japan)

	Consequences of continuity and change over the period	Consequences of continuity and change over the period.
	• nature (types) of continuity and change
	• forces that bring about continuity and change, for example, political, economic, social, military, religious, technological, leadership, collective or group pressure
	• identifying forces that were more significant than others in shaping continuity and change
	• identifying aspects of a society that changed and those which stayed the same
	Key people, ideas and events over the period
	• ideas that emerged throughout the period key events that occurred throughout the period
	• the emergence of individuals and groups within a society

Modern History - General Year 11

Unit 1 – People, Place and Time (Elective: George Washington and the American revolution)

Unit 2 – Power and Authority (Elective: Tokugawa Japan)

	level of support or opposition for significant individuals, groups or organisations, ideas and events

Historical skills

CANNINGVALE

COURSE OUTLINE 2022

CANNINGVALE

Modern History - General Year 11

Unit 1 – People, Place and Time (Elective: George Washington and the American revolution)

Unit 2 – Power and Authority (Elective: Tokugawa Japan)

The following skills will be developed during this unit.

Chronology, terms and concepts

- identify links between events to understand the nature and significance of causation, continuity and change over time
- use historical terms and concepts in appropriate contexts to demonstrate historical knowledge and understanding

Historical questions and research

- formulate, test and modify propositions to investigate historical issues
- frame questions to guide inquiry and develop a coherent research plan for inquiry
- identify, locate and organise relevant information from a range of primary and secondary sources
- practise ethical scholarship when conducting research

Analysis and use of sources

- identify the origin, purpose and context of historical sources
- analyse, interpret and synthesise evidence from different types of sources to develop and sustain an historical argument
- evaluate the reliability, usefulness and contestable nature of sources to develop informed judgements that support an historical argument

Perspectives and interpretations

- analyse and account for the different perspectives of individuals and groups in the past
- evaluate critically different historical interpretations of the past, how they evolved, and how they are shaped by the historian's perspective
- evaluate contested views about the past to understand the provisional nature of historical knowledge and to arrive at reasoned and supported conclusions

Explanation and communication

- develop texts that integrate appropriate evidence from a range of sources to explain the past and to support and refute arguments
- communicate historical understanding by selecting and using text forms appropriate to the purpose and audience
- apply appropriate referencing techniques accurately and consistently

SEMESTER 2: POWER AND AUTHORITY- TOKUGAWA JAPAN.

Modern History - General Year 11

Unit 1 – People, Place and Time (Elective: George Washington and the American revolution)

Unit 2 – Power and Authority (Elective: Tokugawa Japan)

Ter m	Week	Topic and key teaching points	Syllabus content	WALT/WILF	Assessment
2	1-2	Go through course outline, syllabus and assessment outline. Establish word glossary (Japanese word to English) Biographies Timelines Introduction • define the ideas of power and authority • discuss different ideas about the nature of power and authority • exploring power and authority in early Japan • Map Japan Timeline and brief explanation of life in Japan prior to Tokugawa Japan. Look at the differing eras and their reasons for falling. RESOURCES: Hand out Power and Authority. Hand out syllabus/ outline Readings from: Investigating Japan Chapter 1- Investigating Japan. Chapter 2- China and Korea Map of world and Japan.	The development of historical skills is intrinsic to the teaching of this unit. (This content follows this table.) The impact of the following forces should be considered, where appropriate, throughout the elective: political, economic, leadership, international relations/conflict, social/cultural. Historical knowledge and understanding: Elements of society at the start of the period • key political, social and economic structures of a society at the start of the period • values, beliefs and traditions are linked to the identity of a society • recognition of different kinds of power and authority that exist within a society • identifying structures and processes of power and authority in the society	WALT (What are we learning to do): Defining Power and Authority, exploring the geographical layout and early history of Japan-Timeline. WILF (What am I looking for): Clear definitions of Power and Authority, Mapping and timeline skills.

Modern History - General Year 11

Unit 1 – People, Place and Time (Elective: George Washington and the American revolution)

Unit 2 – Power and Authority (Elective: Tokugawa Japan)

Modern History - General Year 11

Unit 1 – People, Place and Time (Elective: George Washington and the American revolution)

Unit 2 – Power and Authority (Elective: Tokugawa Japan)

	Power point on Kamakura. Worksheet on Kamakura Shogunate Power point on Muromachi Worksheet on Muromachi	 identifying structures and processes of power and authority in the society significant events, issues, people and other factors that shaped the nature of society at the start of the period Key people, ideas and events over the period: individuals and groups present challenges to the structures of power and authority as a result of events and ideas within the time period motivation and actions of individuals and groups
3 4	Introduction to the inquiry (Handout assignment) Sixteenth Century Japan: Sengoku Japan at the beginning of the period, including the key people, ideas and events • the period of the warring states (Sengoku-1467-1616) • impact of the arrival of Portuguese traders and the Jesuits • reactions to the growth of Christianity	seeking to influence structures of power and authority the structures of power and authority respond to challenges by individuals, groups and organisations Historical Knowledge and Understanding: Elements of Society at the start of the period: key political, social and economic structures of a society at the start of the period values, beliefs and traditions are linked to the identity of a society	WALT (What are we learning to do): Planning, conducting and communicating an inquiry into Feudalism, Exploring Sengoku and it's impact on Japan.	Task 6 Part A: Historical inquiry – Feudal societies (Week 4–7)

CANNINGVALE

Modern History - General Year 11

Unit 1 – People, Place and Time (Elective: George Washington and the American revolution)

Unit 2 – Power and Authority (Elective: Tokugawa Japan)

- contribution of Oda Nobunaga and Toyotomi Hideyoshi to the unifying of Japan under a single ruler
- the Battle of Sekigahara
- how Tokugawa Ieyasu became ruling Shogun in 1603

Feudal system- what is it? How is it organised? How does it impact society?

PBS- Memoirs of a secret Empire: Japan

RESOURCES:

Text: Investigating Japan Chapter 4 and 5 Worksheet- Samurai Worksheet- Feudal systems Assignment Sheet PBS- Memoirs of a secret Empire: Japan

- recognition of different kinds of power and authority that exist within a society
- identifying structures and processes of power and authority in the society
- significant events, issues, people and other factors that shaped the nature of society at the start of the period

Key people, ideas and events over the period

- individuals and groups present challenges to the structures of power and authority as a result of events and ideas within the time period
- motivation and actions of individuals and groups seeking to influence structures of power and authority
- the structures of power and authority respond to challenges by individuals, groups and organisations

Consequences of change and continuity over the period.

- indicators of continuity and change
- how and why aspects of society change while other aspects remain unchanged

WILF (What am I looking for): Investigation and Questioning skills, understanding of Feudalism and understanding Sengoku's impact Socially, Politically & Leadership, Internationally and Economically.

Modern History - General Year 11

Unit 1 – People, Place and Time (Elective: George Washington and the American revolution)

Unit 2 – Power and Authority (Elective: Tokugawa Japan)

			the fate of those people who either supported or resisted continuity and change in a society throughout a period
3	6-7	 Tokugawa Japan: Ieyasu to isolation (1603–1641) Continuity and change throughout the period (Timeline skills) reasons for Japan's 'closed door' policy of shakoku and the edict of 1636 significant events between 1543 and 1641 Deshima Island: its importance to the Japanese and the Dutch Tokugawa Japan: the challenges of isolation (1641–1853) Continuity and change throughout the period everyday life during this period of isolation and peace decline of the samurai ensuring loyalty of the daimyo and the tozama to the Tokugawa shoguns the growth of trade and the rise of the chonin the position of the peasants 	Historical Knowledge and Understanding: Key people, ideas and events over the period: • individuals and groups present challenges to the structures of power and authority as a result of events and ideas within the time period • motivation and actions of individuals and groups seeking to influence structures of power and authority • the structures of power and authority respond to challenges by individuals, groups and organisations Consequences of continuity and change over the period: • indicators of continuity and change	WALT (What are we learning to do): Beginning of Tokugawa Japan- who is important and why, what the closed door policy was and it's impact. WILF (What am I looking for): Timeline skills, glossary of main people and their roles, research communicated.	Task 6 Part B: Presentation of inquiry findings.

Modern History - General Year 11

Unit 1 – People, Place and Time (Elective: George Washington and the American revolution)

Unit 2 – Power and Authority (Elective: Tokugawa Japan)

		RESOURCES: Text Investigating Japan: Chapter 6 Handout- Ieyasu Handout- tokugawa	 how and why aspects of society change while other aspects remain unchanged the fate of those people who either supported or resisted continuity and change in a society throughout a period
3	8-9	 Commodore Perry and the end of isolation reasons for foreign interest in Japan, especially by the USA the impact of Commodore Perry's arrival in 1853 different representations of Perry's arrival, including Japanese woodcuts and writing extent of bias, propaganda, motive and purpose evident in the representations Task 6: Teacher-generated source analysis RESOURCES: Handout- Commodore Perry Text Investigating Japan- Chapter 7 Source Analysis 	 Historical Knowledge and Understanding: Key people, ideas and events over the period: individuals and groups present challenges to the structures of power and authority as a result of events and ideas within the time period motivation and actions of individuals and groups seeking to influence structures of power and authority the structures of power and authority respond to challenges by individuals, groups and organisations Consequences of continuity and change over the period: indicators of continuity and change 	WALT (What are we learning to do): The end of isolation- impacts, affects using sources. WILF (What am I looking for): Source analysis skills	Task 7: Source Analysis- arrival of Commodore Perry

Modern History - General Year 11

Unit 1 – People, Place and Time (Elective: George Washington and the American revolution)

Unit 2 – Power and Authority (Elective: Tokugawa Japan)

			 how and why aspects of society change while other aspects remain unchanged the fate of those people who either supported or resisted continuity and change in a society throughout a period
3	10	 The fall of the Tokugawa Shogunate challenges to the shogun's power, including the 'Unequal Treaties' the Sonno Movement and the clans of the southwest role in restoring the Emperor to power the role of the shi-shi Outline events leading to the fall of the Tokugawa Shogunate Use primary and secondary sources to look at continuity and change. RESOURCES: Text: Senior Modern History QLD 	 Historical Knowledge and Understanding: Key people, ideas and events over the period: individuals and groups present challenges to the structures of power and authority as a result of events and ideas within the time period motivation and actions of individuals and groups seeking to influence structures of power and authority the structures of power and authority respond to challenges by individuals, groups and organisations Consequences of continuity and change over the period: indicators of continuity and change 	WALT (What are we learning to do): Reasons for the end of the Tokugawa Shogunate- internal and external forces. Use Sources. WILF (What am I looking for): Source analysis skills, explanation of how society changed over time.

Modern History - General Year 11

Unit 1 – People, Place and Time (Elective: George Washington and the American revolution)

Unit 2 – Power and Authority (Elective: Tokugawa Japan)

			 how and why aspects of society change while other aspects remain unchanged the fate of those people who either supported or resisted continuity and change in a society throughout a period
3-4	11-13	 From Tokugawa to Meiji: the Meiji Restoration how and why Japanese society changed aspects of Japanese society which remained the same the nature of the Meiji Restoration explain the significance of: the Charter Oath the end of feudalism introduction of conscription the demise of the samurai the Satsuma rebellion and the fate of Saigo Takamori 	 Historical Knowledge and Understanding: Key people, ideas, events over the period: individuals and groups present challenges to the structures of power and authority as a result of events and ideas within the time period motivation and actions of individuals and groups seeking to influence structures of power and authority the structures of power and authority respond to challenges by individuals, groups and organisations Consequences of continuity and change over the period: 	WALT (What are we learning to do): Analysing sources about the social changes due to the fall of Tokugawa, Fact vs fiction analysis. WILF (What am I looking for): Inquiry skills, essay-proper paragraphs and addressing the question.	Task 8 (Week 12): Source Analysis based on social structure changes. Handout Task 9 to begin research.
		RESOURCES: Text Investigating Japan chapter 9 Clickview- Japan Worksheet- Meiji	indicators of continuity and change

Modern History - General Year 11

Unit 1 – People, Place and Time (Elective: George Washington and the American revolution)

Unit 2 – Power and Authority (Elective: Tokugawa Japan)

		Text Investigating Japan chapter 11.	 how and why aspects of society change while other aspects remain unchanged the fate of those people who either supported or resisted continuity and change in a society throughout a period
4	14-15	Exploring film representations of the late Tokugawa period The Last Samurai (2004 – Hollywood) and Yojimbo (1961 – Japanese) • to what extent are the films a valid representation of the events they are depicting? • consider the perspectives of the films and suggest reasons (passage of time, bias, motive, values and beliefs) for those perspectives RESOURCES: ASSIGNMENT SHEET The Last Samurai (2004 – Hollywood) Yojimbo (1961 – Japanese)	 Historical Knowledge and Understanding: Key people, ideas, events over the period: individuals and groups present challenges to the structures of power and authority as a result of events and ideas within the time period motivation and actions of individuals and groups seeking to influence structures of power and authority the structures of power and authority respond to challenges by individuals, groups and organisations Consequences of continuity and change over the period: indicators of continuity and change 	WALT (What are we learning to do): Fact vs fiction analysis skills, essay writing, research skills. WILF (What am I looking for): Inquiry skills, essay-proper paragraphs and addressing the question	Task 9 (Week 15): Explanationan extended response to film as a representation of history.

Modern History – General Year 11

Unit 1 – People, Place and Time (Elective: George Washington and the American revolution)

Unit 2 – Power and Authority (Elective: Tokugawa Japan)

		 how and why aspects of society change while other aspects remain unchanged the fate of those people who either supported or resisted continuity and change in a society throughout a period
4 16	Revision of course: You should be able to explain: Early Japan Shifting of power Civil unrest Foreign issues You will need to look at your Japanese word glossaries, people biographies and your timelines. RESOURCES: Timelines Glossaries Biographies Test	 Historical Knowledge and Understanding: Elements of Society at the start of the period: key political, social and economic structures of a society at the start of the period values, beliefs and traditions are linked to the identity of a society recognition of different kinds of power and authority that exist within a society identifying structures and processes of power and authority in the society significant events, issues, people and other factors that shaped the nature of society at the start of the period Key people, ideas and events over the period: 	WALT (What are we learning to do): Revising the whole period focus on continuity and change- Social, Political & Leadership, International, Economic and referring to Sources (evidence)- SPIES! WILF (What am I looking for): Knowledge and understanding of elements of Japanese society at the start of the period, Key people, ideas, events over the period and	Task 10: Test on Unit 2

Modern History - General Year 11

Unit 1 – People, Place and Time (Elective: George Washington and the American revolution)

Unit 2 – Power and Authority (Elective: Tokugawa Japan)

	•	individuals and groups present challenges to the	Consequences of continuity structures of power and authority as a result of events and ideas within the time period	and change over the period.
	•	motivation and actions of individuals and groups seeking to influence structures of power and authority
	•	the structures of power and authority respond to challenges by individuals, groups and organisations
	Coi	nsequences of change and continuity over the period:
	•	indicators of continuity and change
	•	how and why aspects of society change while other aspects remain unchanged
	•	the fate of those people who either supported or resisted continuity and change in a society throughout a period

CANNINGVALE

COURSE OUTLINE 2022

CANNINGVALE

Modern History - General Year 11

Unit 1 – People, Place and Time (Elective: George Washington and the American revolution)

Unit 2 – Power and Authority (Elective: Tokugawa Japan)

Historical skills

The following skills will be developed during this unit.

Chronology, terms and concepts

- identify links between events to understand the nature and significance of causation, continuity and change over time
- use historical terms and concepts in appropriate contexts to demonstrate historical knowledge and understanding

Historical questions and research

- formulate, test and modify propositions to investigate historical issues
- frame questions to guide inquiry and develop a coherent research plan for inquiry
- identify, locate and organise relevant information from a range of primary and secondary sources
- practise ethical scholarship when conducting research

Analysis and use of sources

- · identify the origin, purpose and context of historical sources
- analyse, interpret and synthesise evidence from different types of sources to develop and sustain an historical argument
- evaluate the reliability, usefulness and contestable nature of sources to develop informed judgements that support an historical argument

Perspectives and interpretations

• analyse and account for the different perspectives of individuals and groups in the past

CANNINGVALE

COURSE OUTLINE 2022

Modern History - General Year 11

Unit 1 – People, Place and Time (Elective: George Washington and the American revolution)

Unit 2 – Power and Authority (Elective: Tokugawa Japan)

- evaluate critically different historical interpretations of the past, how they evolved, and how they are shaped by the historian's perspective
- evaluate contested views about the past to understand the provisional nature of historical knowledge and to arrive at reasoned and supported conclusions

Explanation and communication

- develop texts that integrate appropriate evidence from a range of sources to explain the past and to support and refute arguments
- communicate historical understanding by selecting and using text forms appropriate to the purpose and audience
- apply appropriate referencing techniques accurately and consistently