

Code of Conduct

Core Values

Canning Vale College provides an inclusive and safe educational environment that accommodates and appreciates the diversity arising from culture, disability, gender identity or expression, mental health, race, religion, or sexual orientation. All members of Canning Vale College are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that adheres to the three core values of the college: respect for self, others and the environment.

Students at CVC will:

Be Successful

- Attend school, be punctual and prepared for class, every lesson, every day
- Strive to achieve the academic, study and assessment requirements for each subject, to the best of their ability
- Seek support and advice if experiencing difficulties in any aspect of college life

Be Safe

- Model appropriate behaviour at all times and in all areas of the College
- Respect the rights of others
- Consider the safety of others both inside and outside of the classroom

Be Part of a Community

- Follow all College rules and guidelines as set out in College Policy documents
- Respect the diversity of all individuals
- Respect and value the College environment
- Actively listen to and follow direction from all staff
- Wear the prescribed CVC College uniform appropriately at all times
- Model appropriate behaviour whilst in the community
- Support the school community by participating in assemblies and attending cultural and sporting events as required
